

The Levitical Priesthood

Concerning Aaron – The First High Priest of Israel

On the mount, Moses received instructions regarding the system of worship which was to be set up among the people; and in accordance, therewith, Aaron and his sons were consecrated to the priest's office (Leviticus 8:9). Aaron, as high priest, held the prominent place appertaining to that office. Because of the prominence of Aaron, in scripture, answer the following questions to learn more about him:
